Please join us for the annual meeting of the Rockingham Planning Commission to be held at the beautiful Portsmouth Country Club in Greenland, New Hampshire on June 14th. Come join us and enjoy a wonderful meal, some social time with Commissioners, staff, local officials and other guests, and help us recognize the great planning work that has been accomplished in our region in the past year.

As our speaker we are very pleased to welcome Willem Lange, renowned New England storyteller, writer, commentator, outdoorsman, and long running host of New Hampshire Public Television’s popular and Emmy award-winning Windows to the Wild program.

Willem enjoys sharing New England’s natural wonders in an endless variety of settings as he hikes, paddles, and climbs his way across this distinct region. With a gray beard, years of experience, and friendly demeanor, he is the embodiment of the wise American folk hero, and he’s promised to share some of his experiences (and wisdom) with us.

From 1968 to 1972 Will directed the Dartmouth Outward Bound Center. From 1972 until his “retirement” in 2007, he was a building and remodeling contractor in Hanover. In 1981 he began writing a weekly column, “A Yankee Notebook,” which continues to this day, appearing in a number of New England newspapers. Last year he published a new book, Words from the Wild about the places and people behind some of the Windows to the Wild episodes.

Join us for what is sure to be an evening with a great mix of amusement and inspiration!
